Subject: Request for Public Information - Pat Smather’s overdue taxes.

The following one-way dialog with David Francis, Tax Collector / Tax Administrator / Whatever, should have been a simple Request for Public Information. But no, Francis gets away with practically murder, and all commissioners do is reward this guy for bad behavior.

The following set of e-mails requests an accounting of lawyer Pat Smather’s past due taxes with the county. I had seen previously, in one of the Mountaineers listings of past due accounts, that Pat Smather’s was on that list. Why, I asked myself? Then, it was brought to my attention that he currently owes about $80,000 in back taxes to Haywood County. That is a lot more than what Terry Ramey had owed, yet Francis went after Ramey with a vengeance.

Francis again sticks his fingers in the eyes of Haywood County Taxpayers, and what do the commissioners do? Reward his behavior with keeping his salary at $78K for the next three months!

Read and enjoy. It is your tax money.

Haywood County Taxpayer
Mr. Francis,

I would like an accounting of overdue taxes (any and all) that are due to Haywood County by lawyer Pat Smathers. It was brought to my attention that this guy owes about $80K in overdue taxes.

I would like to see the accounting of how long he has owed these taxes, i.e., how much each year for the past ten (10) years, and what penalties, if any, he has been accruing.

Additionally, since you are so quick to foreclose on Haywood County citizens for overdue taxes, I would like an accounting of what properties are involved in these overdue taxes, and why you have not instituted foreclosure proceedings. I'll bet he has some plum properties.

As a point of information, this guy is a lawyer for both Haywood Community College and the Haywood County School System. Have you thought of garnishing his income? Check with James Robertson and Marcy O'Nieal on how to do that.

Thanks,

Monroe Miller

p.s. Special Note to Kevin Ensley - Why don't you pick on this guy for not paying his taxes next time he comes before you at a county commission meeting, like you did with Jonnie Cure.

p.p.s. Please acknowledge this Request for Public Information

[Editors Note: Notice, this was sent to Francis before the election.]
Mr. Dove,

I seem to be having yet another little problem with this guy Francis, not acknowledging my request for public information. The next time you see him wandering aimlessly in the hallway, can you kick him in the [expletive deleted] for me to remind him to get on this?

Thank you,

Monroe Miller
Say Mr. Francis,

I know you are busy jockeying around trying to position yourself for a job of Tax Administrator, but could you take a couple of minutes and address my Request for Public Information?

Monroe Miller
Mr. Francis,

If you are not to busy shredding papers, can you please acknowledge this request for information?

Monroe Miller
