What's Happening?

The purpose of this newsletter is to inform Haywood County Taxpayers of what transpires at the bi-monthly County Commission Meetings. This newsletter will be written from the perspective of a casual observer, myself. Any opinions expressed will be mine.

2018 Primary Election.

Primary Elections will be held for several positions on May 8, 2018, to whittle down the field for the General Election in November. Two ballots will be offered, a democrat ballot and a Republican ballot. If you are registered as a democrat or Republican, you will be provided that the ballot that matches your party designation. If you are UNA (unaffiliated), you can choose either ballot.

Early voting begins April 19, 2018.

The following are selected groups of candidates. Each candidate will have either one of two symbols in front of their name, or they will have nothing.
